CHICAGO, April 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chicago, which up unitil six months ago had the reputation of being the westest city in the United States, is now rapidly approaching the bone-dry condition.

It is all through the untiring effort on the part of Prohibition Director Charles A. Gregory. Mr. Gregory assumed the office of dry chief for the State of Illinois six months ago and has during that time closed more than sixty salcoms for violation of the law.

Several days ago Mr. Gregory caused a reign of terror throughout the ranks of booleggers when he revoked the whisky-selling licenses of more than 200 drug stores in the city. The action was taken following an investigation by the prohibition office of the liquor prescriptions of the drug stores of the entire city. Thousands of hogis prescriptions were found on file in the stores and in such cases the license was immediately withdrawn.

One of the chief matters under discussion was extension into Mexico of the American highways that now end at the border. Use of the currency of both nations in border cities was advocated by several speakers. Another matter under discussion was the need for a reduction in export and import duties for the betterment of business on both sides of the border, Gov. Campbell of Arizona delivered the address of welcome. Other important speakers were Adolfo de la Huerta, Minister of Finance in the Obregon Cabinet; Francisco Elias, formerly Governor of Senora, and J. TURMOIL IN CONGRESS

Bitter partisan turmoil broke out in Congress when Senator Caraway, Arkansas, Democrat, and Representatives Byrnes, Tennessee, Democrat, tried to get action on their resolutions to investigate the wholesale dismissals from the bureau.

Buperheated attacks by the Democrats on President Harding drew acrid retorts from Republican leaders. Senator Caraway declared that it was "a despicable thing" for the President to do injury to any of the government employees and then to decline to say why.

Senator New, Indiana, Republican, one of President Harding's closest personal friends, took up the cudgel in the administration's behalf.

"For two days now," he said, "we have been compelled to sit here and listen to personal distribes against the President," or the President's action but whether or not they will be given to the public, I cannot say, Reasons exist, however, which are amply sufficient to warrant the action taken by the President."

PLAN TEST OF FOREIGN DIVORCES

Counsel for Mrs. Edith Kelly Gould Will Go to Highest Court

NEW TORK, April 4.—Counsel for Mrs. Edith Kelly Gould eaid yesterday they would go to the United States Supreme Court, if necessary, for a judicial determination of the question whether a wealthy American traveling or temporarily sojourning in France, Sulgaria or some other foreign country can divorce his American wife with the aid of the foreign divorce laws, and whether such a decree of divorce will be recognized as valid in the United States.

Gustavus A. Rogers, of counsel for Mrs. Gould, said this issue had never been determined by the American courts and that its determination by the highest courts would be of widespread importance. Besides the Gould case, the issue is at stake in at least two other notable international divorce suits which have recently come to public attention—former Senator Hermy F. Hollis's divorce in Bulgaria, and Louis N. Hammerling's rabbinical decree obtained in Austria.

Thus the original decision was reached in vain, as is the nineteenth hole in golf these flood gates of the park were thrown open to admit the bugs and let the water out. This move proved successful, and an ensincering feat equal to that of opening the au gratin locks of the Panama Canal. Then ensued the strength of the vatery level rose. A basebal opening is a good deal like a ship, except that it can leak more in a rain. It is something not to be abandoned except as a last resort, if even then. Whether to abandon the opening game, or stand on the shrips problem confronting the three officials. But after taking soundings, and looking up at the sky, they decided that the whole matter was over their heads, and arranged to save the game for another day. So they beached the opener while standing on the otherwise burning deck, where the siddy through had fondly expected to stand in the sunshine of a perfect day and eat pesnuts by the peck. By today this wreek of the Heaperus will have been made as sarched shirt. Although the Mayor was booked to throw the first ball, things at all times were so uncertain yesterday that they didn't send an automofile to the City Hall for him to come out to the ball park and get pneumonia.

BLAME WEATHER MAN

Mighty strange that with 364 other days to do it in, the weather would have to pick out April 4 to do its raining. Possibly it was just a prank of a playful providence to impress the cash customers what the uncertainties of life would be without rain checks or your money back.

However, it probably is just as well that it rained, as it will give Jim Morley another day in which to find his way to the park, Jeems was completely baffled yesterday. He has in the passing years become so accustomed to opening-day parades that he doesn't know how to find the park in any other way. At a late hour yesterday afternoon, Jeems was seen going west through the Third-street tunnel with measured tread, and carrying a banner inscribed with the strange device, "Excelsior." Some thought Jim was advertising a mattress, but he was looking for the park, and determined to find it.

WASHINGTON, April 4-Grad nal reorganization of governmen ward effecting a maximum of effi circles to be the program of the administration already begun, which is to result in changes wherever the infusion of new blood is judged necessary.

Operation of the civil service rules will not be allowed to hinder efforts to bring the administration of the government to the highest peak of services, according to advisers close to President Harding, who believe that the President is empowered to make whatever changes in official personnel may be deemed expedient in the interest of the country at large, although, if necessary, enabiling legislation may be obtained from Congress.

CHARGED WITH DUTY

CHARGED WITH DUTY

CHARGED WITH DUTY

The President was represented as holding the view that under the Constitution, the Chief Executive is charged with the duty of exercising the best judgment in the administration of the office intrusted to him.

Many changes have already taken place, particularly in the Treasury Department, it was said, where complete reorganization of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and the customs service has already been effected and where other important shifts are to be expected soon. Similarly in the Shipping Board and other agencies of the government, where it is believed advisable, replacement of executive heads is taking place.

In some quarters the view was advanced that reorganization would proceed regardless of party affiliations until installation of new personnel would wipe away all old methods now considered faulty to make way for the most modern procedure.

REVENUE BUREAU NEXT

Reorganization is planned, it was said today, in the Internal Revenue Bureau and will involve, it was declared, about a dozen important places. As soon as the Internal Revenue Bureau reorganization is finished the next bureau to be given attention is expected to be that of prohibition enforcement. Just how many "key positions" are involved in this bureau are not known, but it is understood they are many.

Ninety per cent of the changes
so far made in Treasury bureaus, it was asserted, were under the civil service and made in accordance with the civil service laws.
It was indicated that there was no intention of making a sudden wholesale change in the remaining work of the reorganization of the Internal Revenue Bureau or id the Prohibition Bureau, but that the work would require some weeks and would be made along the lines followed in the customs reorganization.

The Customs Bureau officials, in support of their changes, declared today that the customa receipts for March, 1922, were over $11,000,000 greater than the preceding March and reached a total of $40,285,428, a figure which they said was larger than those of any single month in the history of the While official confirmation cannot be secured tonight, it is known that the President in the last few days has declined to offer the post to an eastern aspirant and announced at that time to the, sponsors for the applicant that the reason their request could not be granted was because a California man was to be appointed. As Holman has been the only avowed candidate for the place it is assumed that he is to be the one named. It is understood by Holman's friends that the customary inquiry has gone forward and that his appointment has been reported back by the Greek government as agreeable.

Congressman Kahn has been active in the interests of Mr. Holman, who is regarded in and out of official life as qualified for the place.

"At least 13,000,000 of the 25,000,000 children of North America under 12 years of age are receiving no religious education whatever." Mrs. Maud Junkin Baldwin, superintendent of the children's division of the International Sunday School Association, said here in explaining the plans of the division for this observance. "We hope you are coming back," said a reporter, dashing to her side.

"I wonder," was her only reply. Then she hurried to her stateroom, where Princes Bibesco, her daughter, and Prince Bibesco, were waiting with their baby and the cabin door closed behind her.

Finally the Coor opened slightly again and her secretary said:

"Mrs. Asquith said everything she had to say in her lecture last night. She won't see you and she won't be interviewed. She concluded her American trip last night. What else is there to say," and again the door closed.

Col. Charles Repington was another British lecturer to sail on the Mauretania.

About 19,000,000 people are insured in the Metropolitan—over 16,000,000 under weekly premium policies. The weekly calls of Agents at the policyholders' homes provide a wonderful opportunity for health and welfare

The Company has accepted the opportunity and to-day is at the fore-iront of public health work in America.

Free nursing service is given to Industrial policy-holders in 2,800 cities and towns. Trained nurses not only heal the sick but teach right living. About 14,000,000 visits have been made-2,116,875 in 1921 alone. Numerous letters tell of lives saved.

In addition, 18,000,000 copies of The Metropolitan, a health magazine, are issued annually.

A CITY THAT IS WATCHED

In Framingham, Mass., the Metropolitan is leading the way in a great experiment, watched by health authorities throughout the country, to demonstrate what proper municipal health regulation can do. Deaths from tuberculosis have dropped from 121 per 100,000 to 40 per annum.

HOW WAS IT DONE?

Records kept by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company show an extraordinary decrease in the death rate among its Industrial, or weekly premium, policy-holders. Comparing 1921 with 1911, for example, there were 55,000 less deaths in 1921 than there would have been if the 1911 death rate had prevailed.

What brought about the great saving of life?

The general public health movement-progress in medical science and sanitation other causes, perhaps. But a very great factor has been the tremendous health can carried on by the Metropolitan itself. This page tells a part of the story.

LEAGUE SCORED

Bay State Representative

Makes Charges

(BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE.) WASHINGTON, April 4.-Demand for investigation by the Department of Justice of charges that the Anti-Saloon League of America had failed to report campaign expenditures as required under the Corrupt Practices Act, was made in the House today by Representative Tinkham, Republican, Mas-

Making the charges himself, Tinkham declared it would be absolutely futile to expect an investigation by Congress because "of the complete control of the House by the Anti-Saloon League and its abject obedience to the dictates of the league."

SPECIFIC CHARGE

Tinkham charged specifically that the league had violated the Corrupt Practices Act by not making returns from 1910, the year of the law's enactment, until 1920; by not giving the names and addresses of all persons receiving 310 or more in the returns filed by Wayne B. Wheeler, its general coursel. more in the returns filed by Wayne B. Wheeler, its general counsel, "under protest" in 1920, and by the nonreporting, under the act of branches of the league in West Virginia, Maryland, Wisconsin, Colorado, Oregon and Iowa. "Complete failure," also was charged by the Massachusetts House member, "to file returns with the clerk of the House of numerous other State branches of the league which received or disbursed money in connection with the Congressional election in 1920, with its dictation.

Tinkham also read from the Tennessee leafiet that funds from that State also helped provide for the maintenance of the national organization and for the Washington office under the very successful management of the Hon. Wayne B. Wheeler, one of the greatest diplomats and attorneys in America."

INITIATE LEGISLATION

INITIATE LEGISLATION

It also stated "from the office needed legislation is initiated, a constant watch is kept on the actions of Congress and when opposition appears danger signals are flashed to every State in the Union."

Laying aside the publication Tinkham said: "it undoubtedly will be interesting to the country to learn that legislation is initiated in the national office of the Anti-Saloon League here in Washington and not in the Congress of the United States. "Think of it. To what degredation, to what debasement has Congress fallen that its shame can thus be heralded to the world. There, verily, is an end of free institutions and free, men. Cowardice, indeed, has completed their distruction, and dishonor."

In connection with this general subject Tinkham said it was worth while noting that the Rev. Sam W. Small secretary of the Nations. MAG LAREN'S while noting that the Rev. Sam W. Small, secretary of the National Reform Association, recently was quoted in a Washington paper as saying the association had a pledged financial income of over $2,000,000 annually, and that it was proposed to spend it in the next Congressional election.

Fuel oil shipments out of Los Angeles Harbor this week will come close to the high record, it was indicated yesterday. With ten sailings listed for tank steamers for the first four days of the week and with a big fleet of freighters calling in for bunkers en route to various world ports, indications point to a busy week along the old ooks.

To the Investors of America

A MESSAGE to the investors of this country is a message to the business men of the country. For investment capital is created and supplied in the main-by the actual producers of wealth; the "idle rich" are a negligible quantity. Of the twenty thousand or more investors whom our organization directly serves, over 98 per cent are active producers or workers—are direct creators of wealth.

THESE many thousand investors make use of our Rating System in choosing their investments, for the same practical reason that they use mercantile agencies in ascertaining credit; for the same practical reason that they insure their businesses, their property and their lives. They want proper protection against risk and accident. And they want specialized, expert advice just as fully when investing capital in enterprises which they do not personally control or operate.

THEY get this type of specialized investment profection by making intelligent use of our Rating System and the supplementary services which we render. Consequently, in investing their surplus funds they run no more risk of loss than they would from a fire on a fully insured property.

Ir our Rating Book Service is proving of value to twenty thousand or more users in this country, why should it not prove equally valuable to many times this number? With our steadily widening circulation we are making it more and more difficult for the fraudulent promoter and stock jobbing schemer to foist his wares on an innocent public. We are doing constructive work for both the consumer and for the seller of legitimate, high class securities.

Thus, the business which we are carrying on is not alone a moneymaking enterprise, for we are attempting to render a genuine public service. But to make this service more effective we want an enormou larger clientele, and it is from this standpoint that we address the investors of America as a whole.

Look us up through any avenue you will. Or write us and let us give you full information about our investment rating system and the type of service we render.

ness city in the United States, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday on a nation-wide tour to study economic conditions. Mr. Thorpe is the originator of an "economic map" of the United States, by which is shown, from month to month, business conditions in the various sections. He started it April last and designated Los Angeles in white to show that there was virtually no business depression in the Southwest Since that time Los Angeles is the only city which has been designated in white, showing that business conditions here have remained nearly normal.

Mr. Thorpe will be the principal speaker at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon in the Alexandria today. He will speak on "Busifees Is Business." His, theme, while indicative of a straightfrom-the-shoulder talk on business, will sound a note to awaken many business men and give them a different outlook on the best manner to bring conditions back to normal, it is said.

"Business is better in Los Angeles today than any part of the United States." said Mr. Thorpe yesterday, "with possibly the exception of north-matern Pennsylvania and some parts of Florida. I think one of the reasons is diversified industries, but mainly the reason is confidence. Business men of Los Angeles have confidence in each other. They are willing to grant each other credit, and because of this confidence you are today operating on a basis 80 per cent of normal. I look for a gradual return to normal conditions throughout the country within two years with a possible slight reaction that will soon be overcome, during July soon be overcome.

Mayor Favors Pumps in Present Outfall

May Fine City if Nuisance Order is Violated

Believes Large Issue of Bonds Would be Beaten

Mayor Cryer will hold a conference at his office this morning with members of the City Council, the Board of Public Works, City Attorney Stephens, City Engineer Griffin and Engineer of Sewers Knowlton to work out a program for relieving the overtaxed condition of the outfall sewer and also to devise ways and means of complying with the injunction issued by Superior Court Judge Wood, prohibiting the city from turning raw sewage into Ballona Creek after May 29. The conference this morning will be preliminary to a larger, general meeting to be called by the Mayor and to be participated in by representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles County Farm Bureau, City Club, State Board of Hestith, and others interested in the city's sewerence at his office this morning the capacity of the present outfall sewer will be increased so that it will take care of the city's needs during the coming summer. This would make unnecessary the construction of a reservoir in the southwestern part of the city at an expense of $102,000, to store sewage in the daytime and turn it at night from the tank into the outfall sewer, which can handle it between midhight and 6 a.m.

For permanent methods of meeting the sewer problem, the Mayor at present favors a bond issue of between $300,000 and $1,000,000 to build an activated sludge treatment plant at Ballona Creek, into which the sewage could pass, be clarified by treatment and then turned into the creek, without nuisance, or conveyed in open dithes to agricultural lands. Out of this bond issue, the Mayor would also have built at Hyperion where the present outfall has its outlet into the sea, a screening plant to take the solids out of the sewage so that the remaining sewage could be turned into the cean through nozzles several hundred yards from shore. The screening plant and the nozzles, the Mayor believes, would remove all of the nuisances complained of by the residents of the beach cities against the city's outfall sewer. The Mayor believes that the proposed bond issue of $12,800,000 for building a new line stands a poor chance of carrying, in view of the overwhelming defeat of the $12,-250,000 sewer bond issue last June-City Engineer Griffin said yesterday that he would strongly disapprove of force pumps in the present outfall because it is made of brick and concrete, has been in use fifteen years and has naturally disintegrated. "Should force pumps be installed and pressure applied it would burst, and dam up the municipal authorities a period of sixty days in which to make other provision for sewage outlet. The sixty-day period will expire May 28, after which neglect to care for sewage otherwise than by turning it into Ballona Creek may, if the Stene Board of Health rules to enforce the law, be penalized with the above-mentioned fine for each day until such other provision is made.

"The State Board of Health has no wish to quarrel with the city over the issue," said R. F. Goudey, chief engineer for the southern division of the board, yesterday, in speaking of the matter. "The board realizes that the municipal authorities are striving to obey the court's mandate and we believe will be able to do so."

New Thoughts in Gaining Home Distinction

An Oriental Corner

Of recent vogue, especially in the houses and apartments where artistic luxury is notable, but space is decided-ly limited, is the arrangement of "individual corners," carrying out either a period or foreign thought.

While primarily a land empire, Amer ica has more miles of coast line exposed to naval attack than any other of the great powers. We have also island possessions nearly half way round the globe from ou home land; and it stands to reason that our security, both continental and insular, rests upon the size and efficiency of our navy, as compared to that of other nations. Faced by this indisputable fact, there is, nevertheless, a "little navy" group in Congress that would reduce the personnel of the Navy to a point where its actual effective strength would be below that of Japan. of Japanese activity in her own harbors it is essential to remember that Japan is but a child among nations. Twenty years ago she had less than 20,000 tone to represent her merchant marine given government aid. She has built ships and loaned them to ambitious persons to encourage the civil War in the United States, not a long time ago, Japan had no merchant marine, no 'railroads, no telegraph, no newspapers.

During and since the war, however, it has been noticed that cerever, it has been noticed that cerever, it has been noticed that cerever.

I could not compare the activities in the harbors at San Francisco or New York or New Orleans with these Japanese harbors. The overwhelming proportion of ships carried the Japanese places from twelve to twenty hours, everything seemed to be in motion. Boats were arriving and leaving. The ship-building yards were in plain view and along the wharves, hundreds, if not thousands, of men and women were loading and unloading ships.

Boats were, released from the docks to make room for others, anchored in the bay where carpenters and painters were doing the finishing.

At Nagasaki is one of the largest eathpyards in Japan and in equipment it stands alongside the largest in the world. One hundred and twenty acres are covered and the ratiling and pounding of the electrically driven manchines with the everlasting screaming of whistles of boats in the harbor made one conjecture what the scene and noise would be like in time of war.

Besides the Japanese cities I have named where shipyards are located, there are a number of others almost equal in importance with those at Nagasaki. Kobe, loaks, Shimonoseki and Yokohama. There are sixty very fine harbors at which foreign ships may call, which not only contribute to the protection of the country against hostile ships, but which afford every needed ad will reap that harvest.

In January last on my return from China on board a Japanese steamer, I had an excellent chance to observe the activities of the freight-carrying ships in the harbors at Nagasaki, Kobe, Osaka and Yokohama.

IT HAS ARRIVED

By Henry Christeen Warnack

In the Arabian Nights a cheft tried to cook some fish for the king's dinner and his head would come off if dinner should be late. Now the fish refused to be cooked and shopped merrily about in the pan quite as much alive as if they had never been dressed. Every how and then the anxious cheft would lift the lid from the frying pan and cry out in, despair, "Fish, fish, are you doing your duty?" Each time the fish would reply, "Yes, yes, we are; if you reckon we reckon and if you pay your debts, we pay ours." Maybe the chef got the point and maybe he didn't. Getting it or not getting it, merely meant the price of his own head. It is precisely the same way with every potential voter when it comes to the question of getting himself or herself properly registered before election time. It may sound egocentric, or something as alarming as that, but the truth is that wherever you put your foot down, there for you is the center of the universe. If you feel the reddest hue known to pictorial art the center of the universe. If you feel the picture of a tomato.

There's the down open. There's no coal left. There's a pring!—[Kansas City Star.]

There's a railluring advertisement by the house furnishings firm which says new curtains and draperies will freshen up wonderfully.

There's the furnace man (think of it!) who says why wait until next fall to overhaul the furnace. Do it now and be ready for winter. (The nerve of him?)

There's Susie who says there are two or three things to be done to her bicycle and she guesses she'll take it to the shop if we'll kindly lug it down from the attic.

There's mother who says if she could get that old fence torn down she'd have a man come and do some spading in the back yard.

There's the seed catalogue in the middle properly and the reddest hue known to pictorial art the reddest hue known to pictorial art the reddest hue known to pictorial art the picture of a tomato.

PART-THINKING

Every man who wants something done by public administration and who needs the signature of voters on a petition in order to put it across. finds out that he has to call on at least 400 homes in order to discover 100 persons who are qualified to sign.

All of those slothful and indifferent 300 wake up about once in ten years under what they conceive to be a burden of taxes or blunders of administration and set up a howl for reform. They pick a great quarrel with systems and with methods, but they do not change anything by it, for they do not change themselves. They create a new form, introduce a different system, but do not inspire it with life by giving it their attention.

A man's own body is a corpse

PART-THINKING

If every man in Congress and every voter outside of Congress would do their thinking in terms of the whole American people instend of in terms of a part or parts thereof, political life in this country would be an approximation of the simple life. Congress could get through its work in a bout a quarter of the time it now takes. A very much larger percentage of the voters could gain swatted by but the down to business undividedly and profitably. Laws for the most part would be of primer clearness and straightforwardness compared with those now on the statute books or about to be put there.—

Federal Judge Refuses to Permit More Delay

U. S. Dist. Judge Bledsoe made it plain in his court yesterday that there must be no delay in the trial of the score or more cases involving a violation of the liquor laws. There was the usual batch of excuses offered in his court yesterday, but be brushed them aside and declared that they must be heard and that as soon as the office of the U. S. As you did from film on teeth Pepsodent is largely for the coming generation. It brings to adults whiter teeth, new protection. But to children it means a new dental era.

Your teeth, perhaps, have always been film-coated, save right after dental cleaning. The luster has been dimmed by film. Film has caused decay, no doubt, despite your daily

Now dental authorities urge you to fight film. Above all, have your children fight it daily in this scientific way.

Makes teeth dingy

Film absorbs stains, making the teeth look dingy. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Germs breed by millions in it. Pyorrhea, and many other serious troubles, are chiefly caused by those germs and by tartar.

Dental science has for years been seeking a way to daily combat that film. It is the teeth's great enemy.

Two ways now found

Two effective film combatants have been found. Able authorities have subjected them to many careful tests. Dental science now approves them, and leading dentists, here and abroad, urge their daily use.

A new-day tooth paste has been perfected, complying with modern requirements. It is called Pepsodent. And these two film-combating methods are embodied in it.

Also starch deposits

Starch deposits also attack teeth. In fermenting they form acids.

After-Dinner Tricks

No. 148—The Magnetised Hat.

The tips of the fingers of one hand are placed upon the crown of a derby hat. The hand is lifted, and the hat mysteriously adheres to the finger tips.

The secret depends upon a small, black pin, which is previously pushed half-way through the crown of the hat. The point of the pin comes inside the hat, and is bent at the middle. The pin cannot be seen as it is pushed down so that the pinhead lies flush with the crown.

To work the trick, secretly pull the pinhead up from the crown, and clip it firmly between the tips of the first and second finger. The hat may then be lifted with ease. In conlusion, the pin is again pushed down into the crown, and may be removed later.

A YOUNG man sat talking with Mr. Vail, President of the American Te and Telegraph Co., one morning, shortly before his death.

"I wish," said Mr. Vail, leaning across his broad desk, "I wish I were a man again. I can see more big possibilities awaiting development than he developed in the past. . . . But there is one big new factor to reckon with."

"What is that?" asked his caller. "It stands over in that corner," replied Mr. Vail, pointing to a huge glol familiar continents and island-dotted oceans. "We Americans have now quainted with the world. Whether we will or not, at last we must get an und of our relation to the peoples and problems across the water."

And then he talked of Europe and of South America with the easy familiarity that another might talk of Ohio or New Jersey, stating fundamentals of commerce and economics as one dealing, hot in world conceptions but in meghborhood conditions and facts. The world ceased to seem so big and vague and complex under the touch of his understanding.

She was 17, he 18, when they were married.

"I believe genuine, unselfish love can solve all problems," said Barnes, "but there's another thing. Maybe you don't think it's Important, but I think it's one of the most important things in the world. That is, if a husband and wife can laugh together.

"George Eliot says that it's practically impossible to love a person who hasn't the same sort of sense of humor as one's self, and I believe that's true. When things go wrong at the studio, and I go home all put out, my wife pulls some comedy, and makes me laugh, and I do the same for her.

"Whatever other inequalities, my advice is this—never marry a person who won't give, as well as take, but above all never marry anybody who hasn't a sense of humor that responds to the same sort of things that make you laugh."

Back in New York the Prince was very attentive to Mabel Withee, but it seems that out here the beautiful serial queen is proving equally charming to him.

Miss Roland entertained His Highness at the United studio yesteray, where she was doing daredevil stunts, which brought forth his applause and admiration. And last night she gave a dinner for him at her Wilshire home, after which the party adjourned to the Ambassador for a dance.

the musicianly, who responded glowingly to his pertormance.

The program covered many schools. It assumed also a personal expression in the planist's playing of excerpts from his "Triakontameron" and his transcriptions from the "Renaissance." He sent forth shafts of his brilliance and intrigued with a subtle essence of charm. He appealed deeply to his audience and at times entirely captivated them.

Flourishes of imagination Godowsky disdains. He lays no stress on the sentimental, but he imbues many of his renditions with a beauteous sentiment. Delightful, too, is the manner in which he tosses off such bits as the waltzes of Chopin, the D-flat and the C-sharp minor. These always bring a thrill of enthusiasm from his hearers.

Of the widest interest, too, were such numbers as the Polish songs transcribed from Chopin by Liszt. The "Maiden's Wish" seemed to capture his hearers. Quaint, indeed, were the "Music Box" number from the Triacontameron, and the "Tambourin" (Rameou-Godowsky.). "Quixotic Errantry," another of his own compositions, was a flashing novelty that sent of its sparkle to all.

Of the moderns Godowsky played, with comprehensive taste and superb authority. Ravel, Debussy, Scriabine and Liadow. This group ended with his own symphonic metamorphoses on the "Artist's Life" waltz by Johann Strauss. Elsewhere he gave the Fantasie-Impromitu by Chopin and the Rhapsody Opus 119 by Brahms.

Only a brief lagging of interest was to be observed —this, on the rendition of the Sonata in B minor by Chopin. Placed, as it was, this seemed too weighty a measure of music. Godowsky sketched vividly its opening Allegro maestose and the Scherzo. His mood was less certain in the finale.

A propaganda picture for Hollywood, written by no less popular celebrity than Elinor Glyn, is the latest project to be sprung by Sol Lesser, of the West Coast Theaters enterprises. The name of the feature is "The Eyes of Truth." It is to eketch in a general way life in Hollywood from the English author's standpoint, and will be a defence of the film people.

The production is to be filmed at the United Studios. Director and cast will be shortly announced Mr. Lesser himself is now supervising these arrangements.

Of late, Mr. Lesser has given practically all his time to the Jackie Coogan productions. He stated some little time ago that he hoped to make an independent feature, and "The Eyes of Truth" will mark the first step in that direction. A propaganda picture for Holly-

GODOWSKY

By Edwin Schallert A veritable tour through music land was conducted by Leopold Godowsky last night at Philharmonic Auditorium. The occasion was his seasonal concert in Los An-geles and he drew an attendance of the musicianly, who responded glowingly to his pertormance.

Godowsky represents as always a magnificence in attainment technically. One visions greater depths year by year in his work, and while the colors are not always vibrantly imaginative, they bring finely drawn lines and pictorial beauty always before you, as well as a sculptured quality.

"Responding to a universal wish for lasting peace among peoples of the earth. President Harding brought together the leading naval powers of the world, in conference in Washington, and at that conference the United States, England, France, Italy, Japan and several lesser nations entered into solemn agreements to effect a limitation of armaments, which has already been the means of saving to the tax-burdened people of America several hundreds of millions of dollars.

CREDIT TO PRESIDENT

"Although not yet ratified by all the signatories the four-power treaty has already stopped the mad naval competition among nations of the earth, and to President Harding more Than to any other individual, belongs the credit for the great step taken to minimize the danger of future wars. The President should have the whole-hearted support in his noble program for world peace based on understanding, instead of being harrassed by selfish, self-seeking politicians and others who give little or no heed to the fervent hope which is uppermost in the hearts of the manhood and womanhood of America.
"In my speech on the limitation of armament delivered in the House of Representatives on June 22, 1921. I tried to help pave the way for the great program which the President was then formulating and which has since come to such a happy fruition in the passage of the treaties agreed to in the Washington conference on the Limitation of Armaments.
